Clothing Donations bring smiles to the needy!

The Durham Rescue Mission desperately needs your clothing that you no longer need or want to help homeless and needy men, women, and children in the Triangle. That's right! Used clothing can put a smile on the face of a needy person.

If your clothing is no longer becoming to you we'd like it to be coming to the Durham Rescue Mission!

"My addiction made me homeless. I felt like less of a woman. For a while I thought I'd lost my mind."

"Thank you for giving my family and me a chance to start over."

FROM AN ADDICTION... TO GIVING GOD COMPLETE CONTROL OF MY LIFE

I have not thought about picking up a bottle of vodka since I walked through the doors of the Durham Rescue Mission. And that's a first for me. The ABC store lost a good customer when I decided to make Jesus the center of my life. My past was all about drinking, anger and having a heart harder than stone. Because of a relationship that went sour I felt betrayed, depressed, alone and trapped in an unfriendly world.

In my daily fits of anger I'd take my frustration out on my children by yelling and screaming at them nonstop. When I was drinking I wasn't thinking. My addiction made me homeless. For a while I thought I'd lost my mind.

I will be eternally grateful for your kindness.

I'm sure you see why I'm so grateful that I've been given another chance to make it in life. No longer is my world crashing down around me. Today, God is transforming my life in every way. He is helping me deal with my anger. I am becoming a better mother. Every day I am developing a deeper relationship with my Heavenly Father. I'm also learning to forgive those who have hurt me in the past. And that's a big step for me. If I don't forgive then that pent up anger will always weigh heavily on my shoulders. But I could never make these momentous changes alone. Every day I need Christian counsel, wisdom from God's Word and the person of Jesus Christ to keep me on the straight and narrow. I'm so grateful my children and I will be able to enjoy a wonderful holiday season here at the Durham Rescue Mission. So please let me thank you in advance for your ongoing support to help people like me.

Your friend,

Idalis

A Word of Thanks and Encouragement from the Founders

Dear Friend of the Durham Rescue Mission,

When people in need come through the doors of the Durham Rescue Mission, they feel no one loves them. They've been hurt, abandoned, wounded mentally and physically. They feel lost in this big world. When they arrive at the Mission they hope someone will love them and show them a way to a better life. When that day finally comes for our guests, they begin to say things like... When I felt real love here at the Mission everything in my life began to change... The day I surrendered completely to my Lord and Savior all things became new... I used to live in a world of darkness and hopelessness so pervasive I thought it was normal. Today I'm living in the saving light of Jesus Christ —and I know God loves me.

Your gifts and service as a volunteer help change lives for eternity

We share this good news with you because it is your support for the Mission that's helping to change lives forever. Every gift you make helps to transform a life. Every prayer you utter on behalf of the homeless makes a life-changing difference in a troubled heart.

So many come to us with little hope and no sense of a future. But all that changes when they come to grips with the fact that someone loves them. Our staff listens to folks...we hear their stories... we get to know their children...and we are able to carry out these acts of caring because of your generosity.

When Jesus was born that night in Bethlehem it was a moment in time that set off a chain of events that changed the world. The good news is for every man, woman and child who come through our doors the Christian message of salvation is free for the taking. Aren't you glad Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever? Thank you for your ongoing support during this holiday season when so many of our guests are even more receptive to this message of hope. God bless you for being a friend to those who need the gentle touch of a loving Lord. It's our prayer you and your family enjoy a blessed holiday season.

Your friends to the homeless,

“God bless you and your family for being a friend to so many who need the touch of the Savior.”

The greatest Christmas gift is not one that costs the most money, but the gift that carries the most love.

During this time of year your kindness and generosity help us move mountains of pain from the hearts of those who come through our doors. Thank you for your donations, prayers, volunteer work and your continued support of this vital ministry of rescue. Now the holidays are upon us, and your Durham Rescue Mission continues to do all it can to provide food and shelter for the needy. But the greatest gift you help us give our friends is hope their lives can be changed.

If you've paid us a visit recently you were probably surprised to see the range of people who come to us. Often the homeless are not who you think they might be. It's true many are fighting to break free from addictions to alcohol and other drugs. Some are fleeing a life of domestic abuse. Others have spent years on the streets struggling to survive.

Your caring makes a world of difference.

“Today my life is being changed by the power of Jesus Christ. I now feel physically and spiritually alive.”

“Thank you for helping me to find a life worth living.”

OUT OF THE DARKNESS OF ADDICTION AND DESPAIR...TO A LIFE OF SOBRIETY AND JOY

The other day, someone asked me about my emotional state when I was using drugs, when I lived with depression, when I sat behind bars and lived in a world of abandonment. My answer was, I had no emotions. The only time my deepest feelings finally came to life was when I began to take the Victory program seriously here at the Durham Rescue Mission. Now, because I continue to study the Word of God my life is taking a 180° turn for the better. I now feel alive. Positive. Encouraged. My heart is right with God. And there's no more numbing my pain with drugs and alcohol.

My poor choices began early in life. I don't know who my real dad is, and the only relationship I had with my stepfather was that we used drugs together. Not a positive base on which to build a relationship. As I grew older, things got worse. I was sent to prison because I kept getting DUIs. There were times, I'm sorry to admit, I did not even know I was driving. But that's all in the past. Today, my life is being changed by the power of Jesus Christ. I now feel physically and spiritually alive.

God bless you for your kindness.

I'm grateful God doesn't give up on people. I'm also glad you as a friend of the Mission are not giving up on me. If you hadn't reached out to me through your donations and other ways of supporting the Durham Rescue Mission, I'd still be out there doing bad things – and probably would be back in prison. However, because you bless the Mission with your support throughout the year, people like me are getting the opportunity to start over. You and I may never meet, but I will always remember your kindness and your open heart.

Gratefully,

Robert
